

Santa Cruz River Park North

Cañada del Oro River Park

Ride your bike to Northwest YMCA and take in the beauty of Pusch Ridge and the western slopes of the Catalina Mountains. Warm up with a jog along the path before your tennis, baseball or soccer game at Cañada del Oro Riverfront Park in Oro Valley.

Santa Cruz River Park South

Enjoy a shady walk in El Paseo de los Arboles Commemorative Park. Play fetch with your dog or catch a fish at Christopher Columbus Park. Explore 18th century irrigation acequias at the base of Sentinel Peak ("A" Mountain), the birthplace of Tucson. Challenge your legs to a 700-foot climb on nearby Tumamoc Hill.

Rillito River Park

Take your horse for a ride on The Loop or in the sandy riverbed. Watch quarter horse racing at Rillito Race Track. Catch some air at the Kory Laos Freestyle BMX Park. Hit it out of the park, shoot some hoops, cool off at a splash pad, or score a soccer goal in one of many neighborhood and regional parks along this path.

Julian Wash Greenway

Go birdwatching for aquatic fowl at KERP, then watch a concert or soccer match at Kino Sports Complex. Take the kids to play t-ball or baseball at Thomas Jay Regional Park. Bike and run through Sonoran creosote, and pass Hohokam figures cut into steel.

Trail Etiquette

All trail users must use trail etiquette and be courteous to other users to ensure that our trails provide a safe and enjoyable experience for everyone.

- Be aware of people with disabilities and respectful of their needs. All trail users yield to people with disabilities.
- Bicyclists, walkers and runners should all share the trail and watch out for each other.
- Control your speed and be prepared to stop. If you encounter a horse, stop and ask the rider how to proceed.
- Always go at a speed appropriate for trail conditions. Always travel at a speed that allows you to be in control. Slow down when approaching other trail users.
- Keep to the right of the trail. Save the left for passing. Always announce your intentions when passing, such as by calling out 'passing!' or ringing a bell.
- When in a group, bicyclists and walkers should travel single file when passing other users and not block the trail.
- Keep pets under control and leashed when on the trail.
- Stay on designated trails and respect our natural resources.
